

CONDOMINIUMS

POWDERHORN

These units are affordably priced for skiing families. Each condo sleeps a minimum of six and has at least two baths. These fully furnished units offer a fireplace and breakfast bar. One can walk or ski to the nearby Sherburne lodge or the lifts. During the warm months, mountain events such as volleyball and chamber music concerts are practically in the front yard. Some units are sold with 2 multi season passes. Starting at $79,000. Some units being sold with two multi season passes.

SPRUCEWOOD

The skiing couple or small family will enjoy this efficient condo with cozy wood stove, views, and easy trail access. Also included with this purchase are two ski passes for the 1998-1999 season. $36,900

BURKESIDE

With the lifts just outside the sliding doors and the lodge adjacent, these multilevel condos are a bargain. They have a minimum of two bedrooms and two baths; including a cozy warmth coming from the hearth where the wood stove is burning. Starting at $65,000

BEARPATH

The skier who wants a little more may choose these spacious, luxury townhouses. These well appointed units have a spacious master suite and at least two other bedrooms, large kitchen, living room with cathedral ceiling and fireplace, whirlpool tub, and heated garage. The views from these townhouses are spectacular and, of course, these townhouses are trailside. Some units are sold with 4 multi season passes. Starting at $175,000. Some units being sold with four multi season passes.

Call Patty @ 802-626-8333